

a Matrix Leadership workshop

just for MEN

Jack Spivak, Raven Wells and Dan Baur offer a weekend of Matrix principles, live music and masculine purpose

July 15-17 | Boulder, Colorado | $290

Deepen your presence and impact.
Bring freedom and choice into your most difficult and binding moments.

WHY? Complex world problems surround us. Stakes are escalating. Globally, in our communities, in our relationships ... real challenges demand our personal and cooperative action. How 'bout taking it up a notch and revolutionizing your life? You will take away new key skills, perspectives and commitments that solve problems in your work and revitalize your most intimate relationships.

WHO? Are you a man who knows he is not living to his fullest capacity? Do you feel it is VITAL to do so? Are you tired of striving alone? Then join us for the 2nd annual Men's Matrix Weekend. Together we can wake up from our collective habits of separation and learn to come powerfully alive in relationship.

HOW? Each year we choose a focus for the weekend. We work together to form personal commitments to evolve an area of our lives. This year we will focus on heartfully cutting through to greater depths of presence in the midst of struggle and everyday life.

THE WEEKEND will be about how this group of men inspires one another with their strengths, their choices and their openness to be more. Together we will find, deepen and live our authentic connections to each other and to the Sacred. In an experiential mix of exercises, meditations, small groups, music and movement, we'll explore how we can act more powerfully and sustainably to create the change we want to see in the world.

We're inviting men to ...

- Live, love and act with greater potency
- Be held accountable for their commitments
- Stand up responsibly and act powerfully for a just, equitable and sustainable world
- Learn new ways to grow their relationships, communities, and the world.

A joyful experience of humor, intimacy, and depth ... and probably
NOT for the faint of heart

We are inviting men comfortable with words like love, mystery, divinity, and bullshit.

If you don't already have amazing plans for the weekend of July 15th, hold this date!

Matrix Leadership Institute has spent 20 years living, learning and teaching practices that awaken radical interconnecteness in groups. Why? Our investment in connection increases our collective capacity for relationship, creativity, leadership and change. Groups energize themselves for effective action and have fun. Participants describe a very real experience of being woven into the collective Matrix Magic ... the "whole that is greater than the sum of its parts".

I love the man that can smile in trouble, gather strength from distress, and grow brave by reflection.
